ORDER APPOINTING APPELLATE COUNSEL

FINDINGS OF FACT

That same day, this Honorable Court appointed Jeff Jackson, a licensed attorney, to represent the Defendant before the Sixth Court of Appeals in Texarkana, Texas in this matter.

Mr. Jackson was appointed to represent Defendant “until the appeals are exhausted” or until “appointed counsel is relieved of duties or replaced by written order.”

The appeals have not been exhausted in this case due to the State filing a petition for discretionary review with the Court of Criminal Appeals and said petition being accepted by that Honorable Court.

Mr. Jackson has not been relieved of duties or replaced by written order in this matter.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Jeff Jackson shall be appointed to represent the Defendant, Daniel Barnes, in all actions pending before the Court of Criminal Appeals in Cause Number PD-1072-19 and in any subsequent appellate matters should that case be remanded to any Court of Appeals or back to the trial court on any matter related to that cause.

This appointment does not authorize the representation of the Defendant on any discretionary review petition to the United States Supreme Court without express written authorization from the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the District Clerk of Gregg County shall submit a copy of this order to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Signed this 29th day of JANUARY, 2020.
